¶ Pews and Rights in Houses of Public Worship are deemed in law to be Real Estate, except in Boston, where they are to be considered as Personal Estate.

The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

IS a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the Churches.

Their meeting is holden in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, or day of Election annually; and the following day at eleven, A. M. after transacting the usual business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent Widows of Congregational Clergymen.

Difficulties having often arisen in determining, what widows are the proper objects of the charity of this Convention, it was voted, June 1, 1815, — That a standing Committee of thirty be appointed, five of whom shall be chosen centrally; and the remainder in different parts of the State. The five shall act as a Reporting Committee, to receive from the other Members of the Committee applications and statements of facts in behalf of persons who may be subjects of the charity of the Convention, and having considered the same, shall judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the first day of their meeting, annually; further, that the names of said Committee shall be annually published in the Massachusetts Register.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

Rev. Dr. Kirkland, Rev. Dr. Holmes, Rev. John Pierce, Rev. Charles Lowell, are the Reporting Committee.

Accordingly, when the widow of any Congregational Clergyman is considered an object of the charity of the Convention, it is desired, that answers to the following questions be given by one of the Standing Committee, by the first of May in each year, to be communicated to the Reporting Committee, that they may possess the documents for making a correct report to the Convention.

1. What is her age?

2. What are the number, the sex, the ages, and the circumstances of her children?
3. What is a fair estimate of her property?
4. What is her ability to help herself?
5. What connexions has she, who are bound to afford her assistance? And in what way do they assist her?
6. What is her income?
7. What peculiar circumstances render her an object of charity; or make it desirable, that she should have aid this year?

The Standing Committee are also desired to give notice to the Scribe, whenever an alteration takes place in the circumstances of the widows, who are objects of charity.

First preacher, June 1, 1821, Rev. Dr. Parish. Second preacher, Rev. Dr. Worcester, of Salem.

Rev Francis Parkman, of Boston, Treasurer.

Rev. John Codman, of Dorchester, Scribe of the Convention.

The Convention earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity which learned and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for public teachers.

The General Association in Massachusetts.

THIS body was organized in June, 1805. In 1814, it consisted of Delegates from 12 Associations in Massachusetts Proper. Its members "admit, as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines, which have been generally embraced by the churches of New-England, as the "basis of their union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance and usefulness as ministers of Christ."

19	39	38	26	57	14	76	6

The above Table contains the number of years that any person within the usual term of human life, may at any age expect to live. For example, a person at the age of 40 years may reasonably expect to live 25 years longer. The use of this Table is, in case we buy an estate, and are to come into possession of it at the death of the person at present living on it, by looking at the column entitled Age for the present year of the incumbent's life, we shall find in the same line, in the column entitled Chance, the number of years that he may expect to live; that is, such a number of years, that as many as come to his age overlives as fall short of it.

The Territory originally included in Louisiana, was estimated to contain nearly a million of square miles: as large an extent of country as the whole of the residue of the United States. In 1815, it contained 97,401 inhabitants.—The new State of Maine occupies as large an extent of territory as the whole of the residue of New-England.
